B/Style
collection

Singoli elementi di design si legano gli uni agli altri contribuendo alla definizione di un'atmosfera, il cui tratto distintivo è l'armonia, ovvero la corrispondenza tra ognuna delle parti e tra i singoli elementi.

Quando ciò accade non è mai frutto del caso bensì il risultato di un lavoro di regia rigoroso quanto creativo.

Prodotti diversi concorrono in modo equilibrato alla creazione di un mondo emotivo unico ed esclusivo: questo è Bonaldo Style.

Individual design elements are bound to one another, contributing towards the definition of an atmosphere, the distinguishing trait of which is harmony; in other words the correspondence between each individual part and every single element.

When this occurs, it is the result of a thorough and equally creative production task. Different products contribute in a balanced way to the creation of a unique and exclusive emotional world: this is Bonaldo Style.
